

Dear SingleBase:

I received your Aug/Sept 2004 Newsletter and never knew there was a group or thing like this existed.

I am single Mom of two kids that was in Auto Accident April 30th 2003 and lost my Boyfriend that I lived with for 4 yrs.

I was just wondering is there any help you could provide to me as getting cloths for me and my kids and getting any support and financial help in any way at all.

I'm trying to find any help around my community and haven't had no luck at all.

I lost the trailer we lived in his family came and took that back and sold that lost lots of his things.

If you know of any sources I could get some help, I'd really appreciate this -

May God Bless your group!!

Yours truly
Betty Thacker
